Retrieved Statutory Laws and Court Procedures:

STATUTORY LAWS:

Specific Relief Act 1877

* Section 8: Suit by person dispossessed of immovable property. A person dispossessed without consent of immovable property otherwise than in due course of law may, by suit, recover possession thereof, notwithstanding any other title that may be set up.

* Section 9: Suit by person dispossessed of immovable property. If any person is dispossessed without his consent of immovable property otherwise than in due course of law, he may institute a suit for the recovery of possession thereof within six months from the date of his dispossession, notwithstanding any other title that may be set up.

COURT PROCEDURES:

1. Draft a formal written complaint detailing your grievance, dates, and evidence.
2. Consult a licensed legal counsel or visit the District Legal Education Committee (DLEC) for advice.
3. Initiate mediation or send a formal legal notice to the opposing party.
4. File a suit or application in the appropriate administrative or judicial forum.

Guidance: Check the exact jurisdiction before filing any lawsuit to prevent dismissal on technical grounds.

Timelines: Varies depending on the administrative forum, usually 3 to 12 months.
