- Property Tax Receipts: Medium, 1-5 days, Free or minimal fees. Obtain from the local Excise and Taxation Department to prove tax payments and support ownership.

Key Risks Highlighted:

- Property disputes, especially those involving encroachment (qabza), can be lengthy and complex. Be prepared for a potentially extended legal process.
- Ensure all your property documents (registry, Fard, CNIC, etc.) are authentic, complete, and registered with the relevant authorities. Fake documents can severely weaken your case.
- Do not attempt to resolve the encroachment through illegal means or violence, as this can lead to criminal charges against you.
- Be wary of individuals offering 'quick fixes' or claiming to have 'connections' that can resolve the matter without proper legal procedure.
- Any settlement offers should be carefully reviewed by an independent lawyer to ensure they are fair and protect your long-term interests.

Retrieved Statutory Laws and Court Procedures:

Statutory Laws:

- Specific Relief Act 1877, Section 8 & 9: Suit by person dispossessed of immovable property. A person dispossessed without consent of immovable property otherwise than in due course of law may, by suit, recover possession thereof, notwithstanding any other title that may be set up.

Court Procedures:

- Procedural Steps:

1. Draft a formal written complaint detailing your grievance, dates, and evidence.
2. Consult a licensed legal counsel or visit the District Legal Education Committee (DLEC) for advice.
3. Initiate mediation or send a formal legal notice to the opposing party.
4. File a suit or application in the appropriate administrative or judicial forum.

- Guidance: Check the exact jurisdiction before filing any lawsuit to prevent dismissal on technical grounds.

- Timelines: Varies depending on the administrative forum, usually 3 to 12 months.
